Foreword

We, the Senior class of nineteen hundred forty-eight present to the schoolmates of Drexel High School the outstanding events and activities of the past year. May these be pleasant memories in the years to come for those who have been loyal to our school.

Dedication

To our principal, Mr. Harry L. Hallyburton, who has won the devotion and admiration of every Drexel student, by his unusual style of teaching, and his long and untiring interest in our activities, we, the senior class of nineteen hundred forty-eight, lovingly dedicate this second volume of the Cavalcade.

CLASS SONG

Fond memories come to us, of years we have spent.
And among these, our classmates, and friends we love true.
No longer we linger, our task here is through,
And our future's before us, our place we must choose.

Chorus:
These friends and our school, we'll never forget,
And oft, when alone, we'll remember those years,
We'll think of those there, who, our places have filled,
And our hearts will be with them forever.

Class History

Twelve years ago forty-five boys and thirty-six girls entered the Drexel school with the desire to begin the process of learning. Our teachers that year were Mrs. Odes Huffman and Miss Jenny Lee Wilson.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our teachers from the first grade up for their kindness and patience in preparing us for high school.

When we entered the eighth grade our enrollment was lowered to forty boys and twenty-five girls. This was an exciting year for us. We were divided into two classes that year. One class had Mrs. Clapp for its teacher; the other began the year with Mrs. Penny as its teacher. At the end of the first term Mrs. Penny resigned and Mr. Raney from Jonas Ridge came to be our teacher. Mrs. Boutilier was our next teacher that year. She and Mrs. Clapp helped us with our graduation into high school, which was an exciting moment for all of us.

When we entered the ninth grade our enrollment had dropped to thirty-eight boys and twenty girls. During this year we were known as "Knot-Heads". Under the guidance of Mr. Hallyburton and the Faculty, we hope we have improved a great deal.

In the tenth grade we gained three girls and lost sixteen boys. This year we had six members on the baseball team of whom we are very proud.

In the eleventh grade our enrollment dropped to thirty-eight. We were represented in the debating contest by Bob Maye who was very good. Our Dramatic Club gave a three act play to raise money for our Junior-Senior Banquet.

In our last year we gained Eleanor Settlemyre from Marion who had been with us in the first grade. We lost four girls and two boys, which left us thirty-two pupils. This is only forty percent of the number starting in the first grade.

We are happy to be the first Seniors to have the privilege of entering and graduating from our "NEW" High School Building.

We are planning to spend our "SENIOR WEEK" on a trip to Washington, D. C. We will visit all the old battle grounds and all the historical monuments and buildings. We will visit the Capitol of the United States and we hope to visit Congress while it is in session.

Now we are looking forward to the last months of our high school days, which we hope will be pleasant ones for us.

Prophecy

Evelyn! Evelyn! Wake up! The bell's ringing ... huh ... er ... um, what? Quit your dreaming the bell's ringing.—What bell, Colleen? The school bell. Classes are changing. Come on! . . . I don't want to, why didn't you leave me alone, Colleen, until I had finished my dream? What were you dreaming, Evelyn? I was dreaming about the members of this senior class ten years from today. Sit down and let me tell you about it.

You and I were Army Nurses—Captains of course.

Clifford Cooper was a big game hunter (when he wasn't being hunted).

Doris Buff had been happily married for ten years! (Wonder if she could stand ten more?)

Nick Chapman, the main attraction on the "Grand Ole Opera".

Eleanor Settlemyre was the popular new Grammar Grade school teacher in Drexel.

Herbert Williams was a trapper in Alaska, famous for his "Skunk" furs.

Josephine Bass—married and had a couple of kids—six to be exact.

Jack Burns was a famous comedian and has his own program over "W M N C".

Lloyd Powell an outstanding milliner from Drexel, now in Paris, is famous for the "kinds" of hats he produces. Jean Poteat is his private secretary.

Rawlin Mull—A door-to-door salesman sells mostly "Man to be Linament." (Manufactured in Drexel.)

Rondal Mull—A famous tree doctor, now working on his "Family Tree".

Ollie Powell was a famous Girl's Coach at the Mary Washington College in Virginia.

Gaynell Page—A private nurse to Jimmy Durante, especially his nose.

Jack Poteat, Hubert Powell and J. C. Lowdermilk were pinch-hitting for the "Three Stooges" in Hollywood.

Allen Page had his own band. Did you know he seemed to be one of the top band leaders?

Bob Maye a senator from North Carolina, famous for "pestering" Congress.

James Reece a stunt pilot. He had performed for the King of England.

Bonnie Baker a Power's Model, voted the Bathing Beauty of 1958.

Mary Elva Reece was a journalist for that well-known magazine "The Drexel". Tommie Lane was the editor.

Vernon Craig and Philbert Hallman were owners of "The Body Works" shop. They must have been good. I could see oodles of big fine cars around.

Bill McCall was the pastor of the Second Baptist Church in Drexel.

George Hipps was the owner of the "Slip 'em—Rip 'em—Jip 'em" Dry Cleaners in Drexel.

Romilda Baker was a missionary in the wilds of Africa.

Ola Mae Bumgarner was a second Mrs. Russell. She was teaching English in a great college in Texas.

Juanita Watts was working in London at the American Embassy.

Jack Miller had a big practice. Yes! You guessed it! He was one of the most prominent lawyers in Pennsylvania.

Gosh! What a dream, Evelyn! I hope it comes true some day. Listen! That's the tardy bell. Come on, let's get to Chemistry or we'll both be dreaming!

Believe It Or Not

The Senior Class of 1947 has won a number of honors in debating, athletics, dramatics, and public speaking.

The Seniors do use books.

Data of individual members:

If Nick is bashful, why the black eye?

Jack Miller has recently become interested in church on Sunday night. It isn't the preacher.

Morganton no longer has any attraction for Philbert. Nor does the 11:30 bus interest him.

Allen Page is not crazy. It's just a blown fuse.

George Hipps was kidnapped in Morganton by a group of beautiful girls—Zum! Zum!

Jack Poteat almost never visits over on the highway.

Ollie is not interested in the boys—just poor connections.

Eleanor is smart. She spent her first and last school years at Drexel.

Hudgie's (Reece) 410 gun finally shot.

Rondal is a New York merchant.

Josephine got him.

Lloyd isn't strong enough for Physical Education.

D. Boone Clifford finally killed a squirrel on that thar tree. (Attention, Game Protector: No License.)

Rawlin's A Model Religious car starts everytime—sometimes.

Ola Mae is courting—Tsk! Tsk!

Juanita never smiles or laughs. We're all worried.

Mary Elva is going steady—two dates with same John.

Doris is planning a wedding.

Colleen lives just beyanst the gap.

Evelyn is crazy, but happy.

Tommy does not run a taxi.

Jack Burns loves that bus.

Vernon Craig has a grill but not for a car.

There's nothing that Hubert hasn't done.

The reason for Bill's tardies is night activities.

Romilda likes one army.

Herbert—Pontiac—gal—style.

Bob may.

J. C. Loudermilk slept unner this hyar tree.

Jean has her driving license—Beware.

Bonnie likes to sing.

Gaynell is just that.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen and Forty-eight of Drexel High School, being in full possession of all our mental faculties, do hereby devise, bequeath, and convey all our various earthly possessions and all the appurtenances thereunto belonging to the persons hereinafter mentioned, to be held by them in undisturbed possession through the length of their mortal spans.

To the world at large we will a large amount of the commodity which it most sorely needs—our native common sense.

To Mr. Hallyburton and the faculty, we will our ability to know a good thing when we see it. As this ability has been largely created under their instruction, we merely return to them their invaluable gift.

To the County Superintendent and the boards of education, both county and local, we will our inexpressible appreciation for the advantages they have provided for us during the past twelve years.

To the Junior Class, who will soon be Seniors, we bestow all the mistakes and blunders committed by us during the last exciting years as a student of Drexel High. These mistakes of ours, which wouldn't hurt as much as their own, may spare them a little trouble.

To the members of the Junior Class, we make the following individual bequeaths:

Bill McCall and Jack Miller leave their abilities to shoot the bull to Ray Fletcher and Ray Aiken.

George Hipps who has definite ability as a "T" model salesman remembers Ned Brittain and Ben McNeely.

Mary Elva Reece wills her technique in luring men to Pauline Childers and Joyce Gates.

Juanita Watts leaves her talent in singing to Joan Glenn and Faye Harris.

Philbert Hallman wills his ability to knock knots on people's arms to Max Harris.

Lloyd Powell bequeaths to Clarence Lingerfelt the education he received from reading funny books.

Evelyn Howie bequeaths her witty sayings to Elizabeth Berry and Gloria Mull.

James Reece leaves his prescription for reducing to Josephine Rhoney.

Ollie Powell who has discovered a new method of removing freckles and curling hair wills her make-up-kit to Mary Anthony and Gillie Mae Buff.

Nick Chapman, the Hillbilly Boogiest, leaves his collection of songs to Lester Woodie.

Hubert Powell and J. C. Lowdermilk leave their rowdy but humorous ways to Ray Burns.

Jean Poteat wills her neatness to Doris Mitchell and Ruth Secrest.

Jack Poteat, the great Physical Ed. football hero, wills his place on the team to Billy Bryant.

Tommy Lane leaves his skill in driving to anyone that is in need of such skill.

Last Will And Testament

—Continued—

Ola Mae Bumgarner bequeaths her studious ways to Edna Deal and Reba Denton.

Jack Burns leaves his skill as a bus driver to Ernest Epley.

Bob Maye wills Ray Martin his fondness for loafing.

Doris Buff leaves her small but loud ways to Frieda Sigmon.

Allen Page wills his dignified manners to Reba Reece.

Herbert Williams wills his smile to Merlin Shull because he thinks Merlin lost his.

Colleen Cooper wills her ambition to be a nurse to Evelyn Clark.

Rondal Mull, the senior Paderewski, bequeaths his art to Margaret Franklin.

Gaynell Page leaves her gift of gab to Helen Watts.

Eleanor Settlemyre wills her quiet ways and good manners to Bonnie Williams.

Rawlin Mull, the curly haired boy from High Peake who has a way of getting along with girls, remembers Gwynn Ramsey.

Bonnie Baker leaves her graceful walk to Frances Martin.

Vernon Craig leaves his innocence to Sue Sitton.

Clifford Cooper leaves his fondness for squirrel hunting to Carthel Childers.

Josephine Bass and Romilda Baker leave their quiet ways to Betty Jean Shuping.

In witness whereof, we set our seal and signatures, this day of May, nineteen hundred and forty-eight.
